Funding Your Graduate Studies:

Pursuing a higher degree is an investment in your career and future. At Ball State, we strive to make graduate education attainable. Funding your education is possible through student employment, graduate assistantships, scholarships, and more.

Visit bsu.edu/gradschool/cost to explore options.

Minimum Requirements for Graduate School:

- Bachelor's degree or higher with a 2.75 GPA*

IF EDUCATIONAL HISTORY IS OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES:

- NACES member credential evaluation for transcripts from non-U.S. institutions (students are responsible for paying the fees associated with NACES member credential evaluation)
- Proof of English proficiency

*Doctoral and specialist degrees may require different degree and GPA requirements. Visit our website for more information.

Program Specific Requirements:

Criteria for specific degree programs are set by the academic departments. Meeting the minimum requirements for the Graduate School does not guarantee admission to your degree program.
