

Curious Minds BELONG HERE.

At Ball State's Honors College, bold questions
lead to big opportunities.
Think critically, explore creatively, and learn with purpose—that's how We Fly.

You ask questions. You think critically. YOU WANT MORE.

Our Honors College is built for students like you: curious, engaged, and ready to explore ideas across disciplines. With small, discussion-based classes, you'll participate in learner-directed, interdisciplinary studies that sharpen your thinking and spark your creativity.

You'll live and learn among a passionate community of students from every college at Ball State. You'll build collaboration skills, form lasting connections, and discover how you can serve a larger purpose.

It's an experience that complements your academic path and empowers your personal one.
